

CALTEACH

System-Wide Tech Webinars

Gather. Town

an introduction to how to use

this social video calling service

in the classroom

OPEN TO ALL K-12 TEACHERS, UC
STAFF/FACULTY, CALTEACH STUDENTS AND PRESERVICE TEACHERS

February 25th from 5 pm to 6:00 pm

Come join us for an informal visit to the Gather.town environment to learn, play and brainstorm how this social video calling platform can be utilized in the classroom.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!

Presenters

Chelsea Arnold

Chelsea Arnold has been a STEM educator since 2004 and taught high school science for Mariposa County High School. After receiving her Ph.D. in Environmental Systems, she has been the Program Director for CalTeach at the University of California, Merced.d.

Kris Houston

Kris taught high school math for sixteen years in Santa Ana Unified School District prior to joining the Irvine Math Project and CalTeach Program at UCI. She is currently an IMP co-director as well as serving as clinical faculty and Academic Coordinator for the CalTeach Program through the UC, Irvine School of Education. Her roles include writing and leading professional development, writing curriculum, teaching seminars for undergraduate students in the CalTeach program, as well as placing and advising students who are student teaching in the field.